

The Enlisted Association of the National Guard of Kansas
EANGKS
P.O. Box 841
Topeka, KS 66601

The Enlisted Association of the National Guard of Kansas (EANGKS) is a professional organization whose membership consists of current and retired enlisted members of the Kansas Army and Air National Guard. The goal of our organization is to support and protect the interests of the approximately 7,500 soldiers and airmen of the Kansas National Guard. This support comes in the form of Legislative visits and actions in cooperation with our State and Federal Congress and Senate members, a Joint Annual Awards Banquet, Scholarships, Military Family Day events, Golf Tournaments, and a Joint Annual Conference.

Since 2003 over 9,000 Kansas National Guardsmen have deployed, serving in Iraq, Afghanistan, The Balkans, Horn of Africa and many other places around the world. In the past several years Kansas Citizen Soldiers and Airmen were activated in support of relief efforts in the aftermath of tornados, ice storms and local floods. Every day the Soldiers and Airmen of the Kansas National Guard stand ready to give their lives to protect our freedom, security and quality of life.

The Enlisted Association of the National Guard of Kansas Corporate Membership Program is designed to develop partnership with selected companies and businesses, and bolster the support we are able to extend to these dedicated individuals. We could not possibly carry out the EANGKS mission without the generous support of our Corporate Members. EANGKS would like to extend the opportunity to you and your company to partner with us in supporting our Citizen Soldiers and Airmen. Information outlining the Corporate sponsorship levels and benefits your company will receive, are outlined in the accompanying packet.

The Enlisted Association of the National Guard of Kansas is a non-profit organization. Our tax identification number is 48-1082173. The EANGKS Corporate Membership program is structured to help industry maintain a strategic position in front of key military decision makers and assist us with offsetting the costs of the Joint Annual State Conference/Banquet, making it affordable for service members and their families to participate.

We invite your company to exhibit at this year's 2015 State Joint Conference. This year's conference will have over 650 attendees to include Kansas National Guard soldiers, airmen and their families which work for and own businesses throughout the state of Kansas. This year's state conference will be held 17-19 April, 2015 at the Ramada Inn in Topeka, KS. For more information on our Joint Conference, please visit <https://eangks.org/state-conference-2015/>. The Enlisted Association of the National Guard of Kansas looks forward to developing a lasting relationship with your company.

We sincerely appreciate your support of our fine organization!

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1 and the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

* Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)

* Form 1099-C (canceled debt)

* Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
- Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.
